ten second grade, and seven third grade. The following appointments have been made by the Board of Education:

ment school at Hilea, Kau, Hawaii.

D. K. Kanewaniui, Kamehameha
Normal class, principal at Olowalu, Maui.

luna, Maui. F. W. Abbott transferred to be principal at Kaupo,

The English Cabinet.

Harold Frederic's cable letter to the New York Times states under dates of July 6:

Now it is so certain that Lord Salisbury's Government will not enjoy a career of more than ordinary popularity in England. It is stuffed full of lords, both in the Cabinet and out of it. So many peers have never held high office before, and with courtesy lords and heirs of peerages, they have a considerable majority of the whole Ministry.
Even the great spending department of the post office is given to the Duke of Norfolk, and there will be no official in the House of Commons to answer questions on its administration who more nearly conforms to the general public than any other. This big cynical bluff, by its very magnitude and thoroughness, is not unlikely to amuse rather than to offend the democracy.
Moreover, it is becoming understood that troublous international complications are close ahead, and with Lord Salisbury at the Foreign Office, the Duke of Devonshire at the head of the new National Council of Defense, and the Marquis of Landsdowne as War Minister there is a suggestion of old-time aristocratic captaincy in days of stress which rather strikes the British imagination.

Policies of Great Britain.

LONDON, July 5.—The Chronicle publishes what is purported to be a confidential document summarizing the Government policy under three heads. Under the first head is the imperial policy, including a strong navy.

The second head is devoted to the colonial policy, including the development of Africa and improved facilities of intercourse between the mother country and the colonies.

The third head treats of the domestic policy, embracing poor-law reform, the easy transfer of land, removal of registration grievances, restriction of immigration of pauper aliens, fiscal reform, the amending of the employers' liability act, improved dwellings for the poor, facilities to enable workingmen to purchase dwellings, agricultural legislation and other matters.
